Theme

When the Crusader of A.D. 1200 marched off to the Holy Land, the thoughts which occupied his mind were primarily of championing the cause of Christ. The red cross, worn on the chest and painted on the shield, gave testimony to this. Draped around the neck and across the shoulders of the Crusader of today, the Scapular of Our Lady attests a similar dedication.

When a man was about to depart on the Crusades, he prayed throughout the previous night, in expectation of that honor. Our vigil to the honor of receiving the diploma is prayer and study for four short years—years which pass all too quickly.

To the similarities between the Crusader of today and the Crusader of 700 years ago, we respectfully direct the theme of this, El Conquistador of 1957.

Study, my son, to fulfill another man's will rather than your own. Choose always to have little worldly riches than much. Seek, also the lowest place, and desire to be under others rather than above them; desire always and pray that the will of God be wholly done in you. Lo, such a person enters surely into the very true way of peace and inward quiet."

Truly peaceful and inwardly quiet, these men humbled themselves, and were exalted. They asked for little and received much, and the will of God is daily being done in them.

Dedication

El Conquistador of 1957 is dedicated to a very gracious man whose work at Carmel has been exceedingly successful in every way. This success is marked not only with amazing material achievements, but also with the results of stirring those with whom he has worked to higher plains. His reputation has spread throughout the Southland, and he is respected and imitated by all who have come in contact with him. We present this annual to you, "Morty" Martinelli, and we hope that you will accept our hearts and our prayers with it.

Mt. Carmel High School

LOS ANGELES 44 CALIFORNIA

May, 1957

My dear Seniors,

As your final year at Mount Carmel is almost over, your faculty and your fellow students offer you their congratulations on the occasion of your graduation.

This last year of yours at Mount Carmel has been a very memorable one. At no time in its history has the school enjoyed so much success. In studies, in debating and public speaking, in football, in basketball and in all other athletics and activities, you have been excellently represented. With reason you have been proud of your school for you have played a major part in its life. By your participation and by your loyalty and support you have helped to make that life a healthy one. For this we thank you.

The future, whatever it may mean for you, will be competitive. But you have liked competition. You have enjoyed it and you have been best when it was keenest. We hope that this spirit will show itself in the lives you lead after Carmel — that they will be truly Catholic and truly holy.

May the grace of God always be with you and may our Lady of Mount Carmel always protect you.

Yours sincerely

Reginald McCallen, O.S.A.
Principal

Dear Faculty and Students

As our final days at Carmel pass by, we realize that another successful school year is almost over. Members of our Senior Class have contributed much to that success — in the scholastic, athletic, and social activities — and are thereby to be congratulated. They had the responsibility of leadership, and their actions did much to determine the attitude and spirit of the entire Student Body.

The Juniors and Sophomores are beginning to appreciate their heritage as students of Mount Carmel High School. As upperclassmen, they will be recognized as men of Carmel. Then theirs will be the responsibility of helping others towards that full maturity which is the goal of education.

The Freshman Class of 1957 has been particularly enthusiastic in accepting its part in the life of the school. What better example can be used than their wholehearted support of the Mount Carmel festivals! May this spirit exemplify their attitude throughout their years at Carmel.

To the Faculty, our sincere gratitude for the dedication of their lives to one of the noblest of callings — the education of youth. Many times we have failed to show adequate appreciation, but as we grow older we will fully understand and acknowledge their contribution to our development.

As President of the Student Body, I wish to thank the members of the Faculty, the Student Body Officers, the Student Body, and the parents and friends of Carmel for all that they have done to make this an outstanding year in Carmel's history. May we, under the Mantle of Mary, always live up to the principles of life that the Carmelite Fathers and Brothers have attempted to foster in us. When wearing Mary's Scapular, no matter where we are or what we are doing, we will be assured of being true Carmelites.

Sincerely in Our Lady of Mount Carmel,

Thomas J. Cunniff

All the established traditions of Carmel are dependent upon this class, determined to graduate in 1958. In addition to continuing the numerous familiar customs these Crusaders have the additional responsibility of contributing something new, some innovation which will reflect on the class as a unit, and preserve it in the minds of future classes. Their training is nearly complete, and, most assuredly, they will continue the devotion to Our Lady which is so characteristic of Mt Carmel.

Sports

Varsity Football

If there is any person who can point to his record with pride, that person is Mr. Jim Williams. In his three years at Carmel he has won the league championship in football twice, the Junior Varsity championship in basketball once, and his track team took third in the C.I.F. in 1956. His personality permeates all his undertakings, and he has a strange knack for bringing out the best in any boy who comes to him for assistance.

Mr. Jim Williams
Head Coach

Mr. B. J. Andorka
Line Coach

Mr. Andorka is just possibly the best line coach that Carmel has ever had. Two good proofs of this are the lines that he has turned out in the past two years. But his work does not end with the pounding of shoulder-pads. He has worked, incessantly to improve student body spirit through songs he has composed, skits he has contrived and numerous other simple but effective devices.

With a display of its defensive power, holding within the ten yard line a total of six times, Carmel started its march towards the top of the league standings by defeating a tough Notre Dame team, 12-6. The first half was optimistic for Knight rooters, as N.D. took the lead and held it. It was not until late in the third quarter that Floyd Cox went over right tackle for forty-five yards and a tie game. Jim Brown tallied next, to put the Crusaders in front to stay. With this win, Carmel began an undefeated league season, and undisputed first place

The first half of the game was a close one, with the home team leading 15-14 at the half. In the second half, the visitors showed some fine defensive play, winning the game 24-20. The game was a part of the first annual basketball tournament.

Wilson vs. Cantwell

A long Cantwell to the impressive string of victories proved an easy task for the Crusaders. Cantwell took the lead early in the first quarter when Bill Watson intercepted Cantwell's initial pass and took it forty-five yards to gain a first. The next Cantwell score came on a fifty-yard pass from Al Pinkup to Harry Frank in the next quarter. This Al Cantwell scored up in the third quarter until he was intercepted before the Crusaders were able to score. This came late in the fourth quarter when Cantwell came through on a field goal Crusader defense. Final score 39-14.

Boosting an undefeated season, and voted to a ranking in the C.I.F., Carmel traveled to Riverside, to blank a spirited Bear team, 19-0. Riverside's ace tailback, Art Gilmore, was completely contained for the first time this season, testifying to Carmel's strength. But the next week proved to be Carmel's undoing, as they lost the heartbreaker to Antelope Valley, 14-13.

Varsity Basketball

Once again the Basketball team displayed its traditional strength on the court. It was not long before they were recognized as a team of great ability. Living up to their high ratings, they finished a strong season in the C.I.F. and boasted a record of 14 wins and 2 losses. But the team won many more games than just their record, for in winning, not only did they win the game, but also the excellent sportsmanship displayed.

In consideration of the fact that most of the members of the Junior Varsity Team played together for the first time this season, their progress was unbelievable. They got a slow start in preseason games, but at the end of Carnegie League Competition the J. V.'s were definitely in first place, with a season record of twelve wins and two losses.

Carmel's thinclads, including a number of record holding team members, proved themselves a constant threat to the toughest opponents throughout the brief, action-filled season. Cheerleaders

The spirit of the Carmel Student Body is inseparably connected with our domination of every major sport.

No matter the size of the crowd, it is the coordinated direction of the cheerleaders that is important. With this thought in mind, it is to these men of inexhaustable enthusiasm that we owe a great deal of credit for our athletic successes.

The respect that Carmel enjoys in every circle is due largely to the efforts and innovations of these elected officers.

WANT TO LIVE ON WHATEVER YOU WANT? KEEP YOUR GOAL EYES ON THE PRIZE. NO ONE CAN TAKE IT AWAY FROM YOU.

CRED

in there
well your dream has come true and in SBP now that you are going to be to let it go to your head Don't know that at the
many of the year
things will look very but there will be hard times ahead when you see them as if to you whether you do
never to spread to 0.1

the committee from being donated by the board of the
mound area,
a friend to all, and don't consider your self alone engaged with, now that my last child is now with
to be known at last
the best

Mike, and I am sure that you will be a success.
I personally, have had a lot of time here, and have been glad to see sister go & friend on
the basketball team,
the El Con, and on other activities around the school.

no I was glad to pay a stay like some kids, you you as you stand always

The Beginning

It might well read much better - I'm sure with the great

Using deadlines seemed to be the outstanding trait of this year's El Conquistador staff. The final deadline was met and the staff can certainly point with pride to this, the 1957 El Conquistador. The staff had one idea in mind when compiling your yearbook, namely, to give you a complete spectrum of the year's activities through the mediums of words and pictures. However this book is not intended to be a reminder of an end, but rather a portrayal of a beginning—the beginning of a new life for the graduating seniors and the realization of a promising future for those students who will remain at Mount Carmel after this year.

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my sincere gratitude to Brother Francis, our moderator, whose watchful guidance and helpful criticism have most certainly been appreciated. To the entire staff, I am most grateful for the hours spent on working dummies, copy, photos, and art work. I am sure that the memories of working together will far outweigh the moments of bad times or discouragement. This letter could not be complete without a word of thanks to the faculty, the patrons, and the students, for whose lasting memories this book is Special words of appreciation go to Bill Christy, and Christy Shepherd Photographers for their truly wonderful assistance and superior craftsmanship.

The El Conquistador staff sincerely hopes that this yearbook will bring many hours of pensive reflection. We have attempted to represent the activities of the year by comparing the Crusaders of Mount Carmel with the Crusaders of yesteryear who likewise defended Our Lady and her Church. May Our Lady watch
